

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 16-3114-01-CR-S-MDH

MICHAEL A. HUCKABEY,

Defendant.

MOTION OF THE UNITED STATES FOR PRETRIAL DETENTION HEARING PURSUANT TO
TITLE 18, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 3142(f)

COMES NOW the United States of America, by the United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, and does hereby move that the Court order a pretrial detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), for the purpose of presenting evidence to determine whether any condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required by the Court and the safety of other persons and the community. As grounds for the motion, the United States submits that:

1. There is probable cause to believe that the defendant committed the offense of conspiracy to distribute 500 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of methamphetamine, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 846, 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(A); and
2. The defendant poses a risk to the safety of others in the community.

SUPPORTING SUGGESTIONS

Subsection 3142(f), 18 U.S.C., provides that a hearing must be held by the appropriate judicial officer to determine whether any condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance and the safety of any other person in the community if the attorney for the government moves for such a hearing and if the case involves an offense under the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. § 801, et seq.) for which imprisonment for ten years or more is possible. In this case, the defendant is charged with conspiracy to distribute 500 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of methamphetamine, a crime for which a term of not less than ten years and not more than life imprisonment is possible.

The Government further submits that in light of the Indictment filed in this case, there is probable cause to believe the defendant violated 21 U.S.C. §§ 846, 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(A). Accordingly, the Government suggests that upon a showing that there exists probable cause that the defendant committed the offense referred to in the Indictment, there is a legal presumption, subject to rebuttal by the defendant, that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure his appearance or assure the safety of the community. See United States v. Apker, 964 F.2d 742, 743-44 (8th Cir. 1992); United States v. Dorsey, 852 F.2d 1068, 1069-70 (8th Cir. 1988).

Section 3142(e) and (f)(1) provides that a presumption that a defendant will not appear for subsequent court appearances arises if the offense is one enumerated under the Controlled Substance Act as referred to above. Under the Bail Reform Act, there is also a presumption that the likelihood of flight increases with the severity of the charges, the strength of the Government's case, and the penalty that conviction could bring. See Apker, 964 F.2d at 744; See also United States v. Soto Rivera, 581 F.Supp 561 (D.C. Puerto Rico 1984); United States v. Menster, 481 F.Supp. 1117 (D.C. Fla. 1979). As set forth above, defendant's statutory sentencing range is currently a term of imprisonment not less than ten (10) years and not more than life imprisonment.

To further support the Government's contention that the defendant is a risk to the safety of the community, the Government offers that:

- As the Indictment demonstrates, the defendant was involved in the distribution of a large amount of methamphetamine.

For the reasons set forth above, the United States requests that a detention hearing be held and that the defendant be denied bail.

Respectfully submitted,

TAMMY DICKINSON
United States Attorney
